7. Intimation of Claim Payment: After settlement of the Claim, the claim paid details and the balance Sum Insured available under the Policy shall be intimated to You.

8. STEPS TO BE TAKEN IF THE PATIENT IS NOT RESPONDING TO THE TREATMENT

In the event that the patient does not respond to the treatment and does not expire, Mediguide will notify New India and once it is medically justified to look at options regarding the patient Mediguide will coordinate all aspects of the repatriation, together with authorization from New India.

1. Should the patient be fit to fly and able to travel home, but not on their own, the options will be explored which is the best medically justified means of travel -

- A. On a commercial airline with a medical escort - determined again in the severity of the patient's condition - a nurse escort, a doctor and nurse escort, etc.
- B. On a stretcher on a commercial airline (which are limited in availability)
- C. On an air ambulance equipped to manage the requirements of the patient.

2. Should the patient be on life support with no chance of recovery, with the recommendations of the treating doctor a meeting with the New India, Mediguide and Authorized Representative of the Patient are required urgently to weigh up options, which include switching off the equipment/keeping the patient alive, or looking at other options to get the patient back to the home country.

Should the decision be to switch off the equipment, then full authority from the Authorized Representative is required. Mediguide will coordinate all the logistics, including the repatriation of the mortal remains, whether the Authorized Representative elect to have the remains cremated in the country of treatment, then have the ashes repatriated, or should the option be to repatriate the actual remains to the home town of the patient. These decisions will be made together with New India, the Authorized Representative and Mediguide.

The charges for any of the case mentioned above will be covered in the Policy under the Sum Insured. The above entire procedure will be on cashless basis.

Company has the right to initiate the Claims investigation process on a case to case basis as per the requirement or discrepancy noted, before providing necessary service.

The list of WLMC is dynamic and may change without prior notice to the Insured. Please refer to New India's website for the updated list of WLMCs.
